I. Detailed explanation of changes (use FROM/TO format)

FROM: 3-credit course The Marginal Student

TO: 2-credit on-line course The Marginalized Learner

II. Justification for action

While the DPI has applauded our series of courses leading to the Alternative Education Programs Licensure (952), the number of credits required (15 total) has been prohibitive to students wishing to obtain the 952 license. We are in the process of converting the course to an on-line format and have taken this opportunity to reconfigure the AEPL Program to a series of four 2-credit courses that can be completed within one academic year or one summer. We have also taken this opportunity to rename the courses in hopes of making them more marketable by making the titles more reflective of the actual content and thus more readily accessible to teachers in the field. In the case of this course, the name is being changed to include the work “learner” to make it more consistent with the titles of the other courses in the sequence.

This course will be offered in the first eight weeks of each spring semester and during the third three-week term of each summer session.

III. Syllabus/outline (if course Revision)
