II. Justification for action

The ACCOUNT 756 course content has significantly expanded in recent years beyond what can be covered in a 3-unit course. Budget constraints and MPA graduation requirements prohibit the introduction of a second course in corporate taxation. Moving from 3-units to 4-units is the most logical solution on a fiscal, financial, pedagogical, and curricular basis. Questions regarding staffing 4-units can be easily answered by referring to the Accounting Department's long-range staffing plan.
